

YAHOO! MAIL

Print - Close Window

From: robin.duane@us.army.mil
To: wwfriedman@yahoo.com
Date: Wed, 20 Sep 2006 12:01:20 -0400
Subject: Hi

Hi,

I haven't been ignoring you. We have been really busy over the last three weeks and doesn't look like it will slow much. If you've been watching the news you may have seen a few tidbits about Operation MOUNTAIN FURY. I can't tell you much, but I can tell you we have been knee-deep in it. We have the bad guys on the run and have made some great gains. The guys have simply been too busy to send in any requests, but I did put out in our nightly blast to the teams that they are being adopted by a HOG from PA. One guy asked for assless leather chaps for when he meets the Colonel. Then he said, "just kidding... T-shirts, magazines and ball caps are always cool."

You'd be surprised at what guys really want and need out at their firebases. A Baghram, one of the larger bases in the country (we call it "the self-licking ice cream cone"), they have a lavish spread in the dining facility. Fresh produce, fruits, veggies, and a great selection of other healthy foods. Out at firebase Shkin they have chicken wings about six meals per week, they had bananas once about two weeks ago. They want fresh fruit, veggies, and healthy chow. But those things are kinda hard to send in boxes from PA. We are sending out another blast this evening so I will hit them upa agin for requests and forward them to you. FYI, I have about 130 guys in the company counting attachments. Hope you are well.
Love, Rob