

25 Years of Shifting Gears

25th Anniversary Celebration Ride

A Back Roads Ride to God's Country: Potter County!
Destination: Ox Yoke Inn, a biker friendly establishment!

Led by Safety Officer John Quigley!

July 18, 19, 20, 2014

Meeting at: wawa, north end of Quakertown (Rt. 309 & Pumping station rd. KSU: 8:30am

15 miles west of Wellsboro on Route 6, the Ox Yoke Inn is where we will be staying. Favored by bikers for its reasonable prices (Rooms approximately $75.) and its family restaurant, the Ox Yoke Inn also has a bar with a great jukebox and a game room where we can celebrate! Leave your bike safely way off the road in front of your room and take the short walk to the dining room and bar. We'll gather for Breakfasts and dinners. On Saturday, we will ride out to explore Potter County. We return on Sunday.

Call the Ox Yoke to reserve your room:
Ask for Megan & tell her you're with IVHOG!
